

GLOBAL PRIVACY NOTICE

Introduction

EM Topco Limited and all its subsidiaries (“Element” or “the Group”) are committed to complying with internationally recognized standards of privacy protection and applicable data privacy and security laws in the countries in which we operate. Element’s head office is at 3rd Floor Davidson Building, 5 Southampton Street, London, United Kingdom, WC2E 7HA. In this notice, references to “we”, “us” or “our” are references to Element.

This Global Privacy Notice applies to all personal information we collect, use and process about you when you purchase products from us or use our services.

Who is collecting Personal Information?

The Group comprises of multiple legal entities acting as separate data controllers, responsible for processing personal information in connection with our business. Please see our ‘Element Legal Entities Processing Personal Information’ PDF for further details on the companies within the group processing personal information.

What Personal Information we may collect

We may collect and process your personal information in connection with our products or services at the start of, and for the duration of, your relationship with us and beyond. We will limit the collection and processing of your personal information to information necessary to achieve one or more legitimate purposes, as identified in this notice.

We will only process sensitive personal information where we’ve obtained your explicit consent or are otherwise lawfully permitted to do so. Where you have provided consent for us to process your sensitive personal information, you can withdraw that consent at any time by contacting us.

Cookies and online tracking

Our websites use cookies to distinguish you from other users and to remember your preferences when you visit our website. Cookies are small files stored on a computer that are designed to hold small amounts of data specific to a user and the websites or applications to help tailor that user's experience. Our Cookies policy provides you with further detail about the cookies we use and the purposes for using these cookies. This policy also provides details on how you can change your settings to block or delete cookies, although some features of our website may not function as a result. Please note our websites do not recognise 'Do Not Track' signals sent by your browser. You can personalise your cookies preferences using on-site tools.

How we share your Personal Information

To help us provide our products and services to you and to run our website we may share your personal information when necessary for us to lawfully carry out our business activities. We may share your information with the following categories of third parties:

- Other group companies where it is necessary to do so, and where we have a legal basis to share the information
- Our third-party service providers and advisors with whom we have contracted to perform services on our behalf and who process information on our behalf to provide our Services or run internal business operations including email distribution, IT services, business support and customer services
- Independent debt recovery agencies, service providers, solicitors, or other agents in the event of non-payment for Products or Services and where a debt remains outstanding after a specified timeframe for payment, no payment plan is in place or an agreed payment plan is not being adhered to, we may initiate formal proceedings to recover the full amount of the unpaid debt. We may share your information with litigation and recovery specialists to undertake recovery action through the courts
- Law enforcement authorities, regulatory bodies or government agencies as in some circumstances we are legally obliged to share information with law enforcement bodies, for example to comply with a court order or legal obligation. We will satisfy ourselves that we have a lawful basis on which to share the information and document our decision making
- With a successor entity in the event of a merger, acquisition, or similar transaction

No Sale of Personal Information

We do not sell any personal information.

How we transfer your Personal Information

We operate globally and we may transfer your personal information between Element group companies to help us operate our business efficiently and to provide you with our products and services. Third party service providers may process your personal information in connection with a service, they provide to us. When we share your personal information between Element group companies or with third parties, they may be located outside of the jurisdiction in which your personal information was collected. This means personal information collected in one jurisdiction may be transferred, stored, and processed outside the country of origin and where privacy laws differ. We only make these arrangements or transfers where we are satisfied that adequate levels of protection are in place to protect your personal information. For these transfers, we have the relevant legal safeguards in place, including (1) an Adequacy Decision in favour of the country of destination, (2) contractual arrangements based on Standard Contractual Clauses (“SCCs”) pre-approved by the European Commission (or otherwise consistent with the requirements of the relevant jurisdiction) or Binding Corporate Rules (“BCRs”) binding on the exporter and importer, plus a corresponding “transfer impact assessment” (“TIA”) and supplementary measures, or (3) an Article 49 exemption to the rules such as explicit consent that allows us to perform these transfers.

Following the EU’s Adequacy Decision granted on 10 July 2023, the EU-US Data Privacy Framework (DPF), allows self-certified US businesses to freely receive personal data from the EEA without further measures. This means that for some transfers to the US, SCCs, TIAs and supplementary measures will no longer be required.

How we protect your Personal Information

We place great importance on the security of all information associated with our customers. We invest appropriate resources and use reasonable technical and organization measures, in compliance with applicable laws, to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage. Our security and privacy policies are periodically reviewed and enhanced as necessary and only authorized personnel have access to your personal information.

Our website uses secure server software (“SSL”) to encrypt financial information you input before it is sent to us. We will do our best to protect your personal information, however we cannot guarantee the security of your data sent over the internet or by email. We cannot be held responsible for unauthorized or unintended access that is beyond our control.

Retention of your Personal Information

We will retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it was collected, such as providing our products or services, or as required by applicable laws or regulations. Our retention periods are driven by legislation and / or business need. If there is no legally defined retention period for personal information, we will determine an appropriate retention period. We will take reasonable steps to destroy personal information we hold if it is no longer needed. Retention may extend beyond the termination of our relationship with you.

CCTV

Closed-circuit television (“CCTV”) may be used for security purposes to monitor the exterior of our buildings, both the main entrance and secondary exits at certain sites. CCTV signs are prominently displayed at the entrance of the surveillance zone to alert individuals that their image may be recorded. We ensure that live feeds from cameras and recorded images are only viewed by approved Element employees whose role requires them to have access to such data. Data recorded by the CCTV system will be stored. Data from CCTV cameras will not be retained indefinitely but will be permanently deleted once there is no reason to retain the recorded information. CCTV footage will normally be erased after 3 months unless required for longer periods for crime prevention or other reasons. At the end of their useful life, all images stored in whatever format will be erased permanently and securely. Any physical matter such as tapes or discs will be disposed of as confidential waste. Any still photographs and hard copy prints will be disposed of as confidential waste. Some of our CCTV operations are not operated by us, so we are not the controller. It will be under the control of the relevant building landlord.

Links to other websites

Where we provide links to websites of other organisations, this privacy notice does not cover how that organisation processes personal information. We do not control the content, the security, or the use of your personal information by any third-party websites. We accept no responsibility or liability for other websites not under our control. No links are intended to be, nor should be construed as, an endorsement of any kind by us of that other website. We encourage you to read the privacy notices on the other websites you visit. You may not create a link to any of our websites from another website or document without our prior written permission.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We keep our privacy notice under regular review to make sure it is up to date and accurate. Please refer to this privacy notice regularly to review any amendments. We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.
