

Quality policy

Warringtonfire Australia's aim is to be recognised by our key interested parties (KIPs), our staff, our peers and approval authorities as the leading fire resistance testing, reaction to fire testing, fire assessments and fire safety engineering company in Australia.

This is achieved by providing a high-quality service that delivers practical and timely outcomes for our KIPs and the community.

Commitment

All Warringtonfire Australia staff are responsible for the communication, enthusiastic promotion and implementation of this policy. All staff are accountable to the senior managers and Quality manager / HSEQ manager for the achievement of quality outcomes in accordance with this policy. The senior managers are committed to and accept responsibility and accountability for the quality management system (QMS).

Senior managers shall review the QMS at planned intervals – QMS management review meetings – to ensure its continuing suitability, adequacy and effectiveness. The QMS management review meetings evaluate the need for changes to the QMS, including quality policy and quality objectives.

Quality objectives

Our quality objectives are to:

- Meet our contractual obligations with a view to achieving KIP satisfaction, reputation enhancement and repeat business through the effective application of the QMS.
- Implement and maintain a QMS based on ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 17025:2017.
- Ensure that employees are trained, skilled, competent, licensed and accredited as appropriate for the tasks they are performing.
- Systematically and continually improve the organisation's performance.
- Audit the quality system, review our performance and assess feedback with a view to continual improvement.
- Periodically review the effectiveness of the quality system in terms of achieving the above 'quality' objectives.
- Ensure appropriate resource allocation for effective implementation of the QMS.
- Ensure that management and staff are kept abreast of changes in relevant standards, legislation and industry development.

Signed by:

Jason Jeffress
Divisional director, Australia

Jim Richardson
HSEQ manager

Micael Lundqvist
Quality manager