Element Material Testing Labs of Des Moines, IA has fulfilled all the requirements for NFRC recognition as a laboratory to conduct air leakage and operating force in accordance with the requirements of NFRC 701.11, NFRC Laboratory Recognition for Air Leakage Testing.

This laboratory recognition is valid for one year. Recognition may be continued past this time if NFRC is annually supplied with a copy of the current ISO 17025 certificate of accreditation with air infiltration and operating force in your scope to ASTM E283 and ASTM E2068 or AAMA/WDMA/CSA101/I.S.2/A440 and applicable recognition fees are rendered.

Regards,

Kevin S. Louder
NFRC Program Manager
