1. Formation of Contract

1.1 These Terms and Conditions ("Terms and Conditions") together with any quotation, proposal, estimate or fee quote ("Quotation") provided by or on behalf of the Company (as defined below) shall apply to all contracts for the supply of testing, calibration and/or other services ("Services") carried out by Element Materials Technology Pilsen s.r.o. ("Company") providing the services contemplated therein to a customer ("Customer") of the Company.

1.2 If the Customer's purchase order does not contain and/or refer to any terms and conditions, these Terms and Conditions shall apply to the Contract (defined below) to the fullest extent, unless the Customer expressly rejects the application of these Terms and Conditions without undue delay, but in any event no later than within two (2) business days from delivery of the Company's acceptance to the Customer.

1.3 In the event that these Terms and Conditions constitute a variation to a Customer's purchase order and sub-condition 1.2 above does not apply, to the maximum extent permitted by law and in case of doubt, such a variation shall be deemed a variation changing the offer immaterially. In this case, these Terms and Conditions shall supersede and override any terms or conditions contained in or referred to in the Customer's purchase order and the offer shall be deemed accepted as varied by these Terms and Condition under Section 1740 para. 3 of the Civil Code unless the Customer expressly rejects the acceptance of the offer varied by these Terms and Conditions without undue delay, but in any event no later than within two (2) business days from delivery of such an acceptance to the Customer. If no such rejection occurs, the Company's acceptance of the Customer's order shall be effective as of the date it was made.

1.4 Alternatively, in the event that these Terms and Conditions constitute a variation to a Customer's purchase order which cannot be deemed immaterial but must be deemed material under Section 1740 para. 2 of the Civil Code and neither sub-conditions 1.2 and 1.3 above apply, the Company's acceptance of the Customer's offer shall be deemed a new offer which is subject to application of these Terms and Conditions. Such new offer shall be deemed accepted by the Customer following Customer's statement or notice to that effect or the Customer's conduct indicating or implying assent to such a new offer.

1.5 In the event the Customer's order refers to a separate document setting forth the Customer's (general) terms and conditions which the Customer intends to apply to its order and which conflicts with these Terms and Conditions, to the maximum extent permitted by law and in case of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall supersede and override any provision of the Customer's (general) terms and conditions referred to in the Customer's order. These Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any inconsistent terms or conditions contained or implied by law (unless the law in question cannot be excluded), trade custom, practice or course of dealing. Any phrase introduced by the terms "including", "include", "in particular" or any similar expression, shall be construed as illustrative and shall not limit the sense of the words preceding it.

1.6 Written and oral Quotations shall be valid for sixty (60) days from the date thereof and the Company may withdraw any such Quotation at any time. Save for as provided in sub-condition 1.4 above, no Quotation given by the Company shall be an offer to contract with any person and no contract shall come into existence except in accordance with sub-condition 1.7. Pre-contractual liability of the Company under Section 1729 of the Civil Code is hereby expressly excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law.

1.7 The Customer's purchase order or the Customer's acceptance of a Quotation constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Services specified in the Quotation upon these Terms and Conditions. No offer placed by the Customer shall be accepted by the Company other than by a written acknowledgement issued and executed by the Company or (if earlier) by the Company starting to provide the Services, upon completion to the Company's reasonable satisfaction of any provision of the Customer's purchase order or any other document from which the Company may withdraw the order or adds to these Terms and Conditions even if not expressly rejected by the Company, unless the Company specifically agrees to such a variation of these Terms and Conditions pursuant to and in accordance with sub-condition 2.1. If any such adding or conflicting provision becomes part of the Contract, the Company reserves the right to withdraw the order.

1.8 No acceptance or acknowledgement, even if in writing and signed by the Company, of the Customer's purchase order or any other document pertaining to the Services shall constitute acceptance of any provision of the Customer's purchase order or any other document from which the Company may withdraw or adds to these Terms and Conditions even if not expressly rejected by the Company, unless the Company specifically agrees to such a variation of these Terms and Conditions pursuant to and in accordance with sub-condition 2.1. If any such adding or conflicting provision becomes part of the Contract, the Company reserves the right to withdraw the order.

1.9 The delivery to the Company by the Customer of any item for testing or calibration by the Company (a "Sample") or the delivery of any request by the Customer to the Company for the provision of any similar services shall, upon acceptance of that Sample or request by the Company, constitute an offer (as referred to in sub-condition 1.7), if the Company by a written acknowledgement of similar services on that Sample, the offer shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Company and a Contract shall be formed. These Terms and Conditions shall apply to that Contract.

2. Variation including Cancellation, Postponement and Amendment

2.1 These Terms and Conditions may not be varied or waived by either party unless the variation or waiver is in writing and is signed by an officer or duly authorised signatory of the Company and the Customer. The variation or waiver must set out the condition(s) or sub-condition(s) to be varied or waived and the detail of each such variation or waiver.

2.2 The Customer may cancel, postpone or amend any order (in whole or in part) at any time, provided that the Customer shall pay to the Company the full amount of the Consideration (as defined in sub-condition 3.1) relating to such order plus all Costs (as defined in sub-condition 3.1) relating to such order incurred by the Company prior to the date of the cancellation, postponement or amendment plus any other losses, expenses and costs incurred by the Company as a result of the cancellation, postponement or amendment.

2.3 The Company reserves the right to review and amend any Quotation prices where documentation, specification or other materials relating to the Contract have materially changed since the original Quotation was given or where additional services not envisaged by the Quotation are requested, for example, producing written descriptions of detailed procedures undertaken as part of the Services. For the avoidance of doubt, approval of such additional requests shall remain at the Company's discretion.

3. Price and Payment

3.1 The Customer shall pay the Company the charges set out in the Quotation, if applicable, or as otherwise contemplated for the provision of the Services ("Consideration") and shall pay the Company on demand for any expenses incurred in the provision of the Services ("Costs"), unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

The Company may issue invoices in respect of Services:

3.2.1 upon completion of the Services; or

3.2.2 upon completion to the Company's reasonable satisfaction of separate parts of the Services, in which case, the Company will invoice for that proportion of the total Consideration for the Services performed under the Contract; or

3.2.3 in a manner otherwise specified in the Quotation, including individual lines on the Quotation, or order confirmation.

3.3 The Customer shall pay the Consideration and Costs stated in any invoice for Services provided pursuant to these Terms and Conditions in full and without deduction or set-off, within thirty (30) days of the date stated on that invoice. The Consideration shall be paid free and clear of, and without deduction for and on account of, tax unless the Customer is required by law to make such payment subject to the deduction of withholding tax, in which case the sum paid by the Customer shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that after such deduction or withholding the Company receives an amount equal to Consideration and Costs it would have received had no such deduction or withholding been required.

The Customer shall pay the Consideration and Costs to the Company by electronic bank transfer in cleared funds in the currency specified in the Company’s Quotation, proposal or order confirmation. All payments due to the Company shall be payable within the specified time irrespective of whether or not the Customer has recovered payment from a third party and, for the avoidance of doubt, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, this includes payments of fees due to the Company acting as experts or as expert witnesses when instructed by solicitors acting for a party to a dispute.

In default of payment within the thirty (30) days, the Company may suspend any further Services being carried out for the Customer; withhold the provision of Reports (as defined in sub-condition 4.2); alter or withdraw credit terms; and amend terms, prices or service levels. The amount outstanding from time to time shall bear interest, calculated from the due date of the invoice to the date of receipt of the amount in full at a rate equivalent to 3% per annum above the applicable statutory default interest under Czech law.
3.6 The Company may retain or set off any sums owed to it by the Customer which have fallen due and payable against any sums due to the Customer under this Contract or any other agreement between the parties or any of their Group Companies. “Group Company” means, in relation to a company, that company, any subsidiary or holding company of that company, and any subsidiary of a holding company of that company.

4. Services

4.1 Subject to the remaining sub-conditions of this condition 4, the Company warrants that it will complete the Services in a satisfactory and workmanlike manner, consistent with industry standards. The Customer expressly acknowledges and agrees that the Company gives no warranty that any result or objective can be achieved through the Services and that, where results are based on smaller scale tests and theoretical studies, results may require careful validation in order to be extrapolated to a production scale.

4.2 The Company will use its reasonable endeavours to complete Services and provide written information, results, technical reports, certificates, test or inspection records, drawings, recommendations, advice or the like in respect of the Services (the "Report") or certificate therein to the Customer by any date reasonably requested in writing by the Customer, but the Company shall not be liable to the Customer for: (i) any delay in the performance of any obligation under the Contract; or (ii) damages suffered by the Customer by reason of such delay.

4.3 The Company’s obligation to complete Services under the Contract shall be subject to any obligation it may have to comply with any law or other regulation binding on it which may be in force from time to time.

4.4 No employee, agent or other person is authorised to give any warranty or make any representation on behalf of the Company in relation to the Contract, or to assume for the Company any other liability in connection with the Services, unless authorised in writing by the Company. Any representation or assumption of liability is given to the Customer in accordance with sub-condition 2.1.

4.5 In relation to radiography reports and film delivered or interpreted as part of the performance of the Services, the Customer shall notify the Company, within fourteen (14) days from date of issue of such radiography reports and film, of any Customer or third party dispute concerning either the radiographic quality or interpretation of results. If the Customer does not so notify the Company within this fourteen (14) day period, the Customer will be deemed to have accepted the radiography reports and film, together with any interpretation of these, provided by the Company.

4.6 The Company represents and warrants to the Company the completeness and accuracy of all documents and information supplied to the Company for the purposes of the Company fulfilling the Services, both at the time of supply and subsequently.

4.7 Reports are issued on the basis of information known to the Company at the time that the Services are carried out. Although the Company will use all reasonable endeavours to ensure accuracy, the Services depend, inter alia, on the effective co-operation of the Customer, its staff and the information submitted to the Company. All Reports are prepared on the assumption that: 4.7.1 there is no responsibility to any person or body other than the Customer; 4.7.2 they are not produced for any particular purpose and no statement is to be deemed, in any circumstances to be or give rise to a representation, warranty or contractual condition unless specifically stated; 4.7.3 the Report is determined solely by the professional analysis undertaken by the Company’s staff on each individual Contract and any forecasts by the Company of the results is an estimate only; 4.7.4 the Company is entitled to be paid the Consideration irrespective of the results or conclusions reached in the Report; 4.7.5 the results of the Services shall address the items and information submitted only and are not to be regarded as representative of any larger population from which the Sample was taken; and 4.7.6 the results are final and approved by the Company. The Company shall be under no liability where the Customer has acted on preliminary, unapproved results or advice.

5. Customer Property

5.1 The Customer shall supply as much information as possible, including a unique purchase order number, reference or authorization, about each Sample and/or Service requirement in order to assist in achieving an efficient service. If a Customer provides the Company with detailed instructions in writing as to the treatment and handling of particular items of its property, the Company will use its reasonable endeavours to comply with such instructions.

5.2 The Customer shall inform the Company in writing prior to the Company carrying out any Service on a Customer site or Sample that is of a dangerous or unstable nature, as well as notify the Company of any actual or potential health & safety hazards relating to a Sample and arising from the Company’s performance of the Services, and shall provide instruction on the safe visiting of the site or safe handling of the Sample. The Customer shall accept full responsibility for appropriate safety labeling pertaining to the Sample and any equipment provided to a Customer or other person for the Company’s use in connection with the Contract.

5.3 The Customer acknowledges and expressly agrees that, subject to sub-condition 5.4 where the Contract specifies that the Services include non-destructive testing of the Sample, the performance of the Services may damage or destroy any and all Samples and any other materials or property delivered or worked upon by the Company in relation to the Contract. Under no circumstances will the Company be responsible for any additional costs or damages, including consequential damages and indirect costs or losses, resulting from destruction or loss of the Customer’s property.

5.4 When testing, analyses or other services are carried out, the Company shall not be liable in respect of any costs or losses resulting from damage to or destruction of any property belonging to the Customer unless the Customer notifies the Company in writing before delivery to the Company and the property itself delivered to the Company is clearly marked “Do Not Destroy or Damage”. If such notice is given and the Customer’s property is so marked, the Company’s liability for damage to or destruction of the Customer’s property is limited to the lesser of: 5.4.1 the value of Customer’s property; or 5.4.2 the cost of the Services performed on the damaged property pursuant to the Contract.

6. Re-Delivery

6.1 The Company will at the Customer’s reasonable written request, deliver the Customer’s property (other than that which is destroyed as part of the Services) back to the Customer after performing Services relating to that property. The Company may use any method of delivery that it reasonably decides and will so do as the agent of the Customer and will not have any liability in respect of any such item so delivered. The Company may at its discretion instruct any person delivering such property to the Customer to invoice that Customer directly in respect of that delivery and the Customer shall make any and all claims for property damaged in transit directly and solely against such delivery company or other person.

6.2 Unless specifically instructed to the contrary in writing by the Customer, the Company reserves the right to properly dispose of Customer’s property after three (3) months from completion of the Services. The Company reserves the right to invoice the Customer for any costs of disposal. Where property of the Customer is, in the sole opinion of the Company, too bulbous or too unstable to allow storage time of more than one month, it will be at the absolute discretion of the Company as to the length of time such property is kept before being destroyed.

7. Title & Security

7.1 Title to the Customer’s property which is delivered to the Company and all risk of loss or damage to such property (except for loss or damage caused by the Company and for which and to the extent that the Company accepts liability under these Terms and Conditions) shall remain with the Customer at all times, who shall be responsible for ensuring insurance of the Customer’s property against the risk of loss or damage being thereby acknowledged by the Customer that the charges of the Company do not include insurance. The Company may retain all property delivered to it until all sums due and owing to the Company by the Customer have been paid.

8. Liability and Indemnity

8.1 This condition 8 sets out the entire financial liability of the Company, its employees, agents and sub-contractors to the Customer in respect of any breach of the Contract, any use made of Samples or any part of them on which Services are carried out and any representation, statement or tortious act or omission (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) arising under or in connection with the Contract.

Other than as expressly set out herein and as specifically warranted in writing to the Customer by an officer or duly authorised signatory of the Company in accordance with sub-condition 2.1, all warranties, conditions and other representations and other guarantees to which law are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.

SUBJECT TO THE REMAINING SUB-CONDITIONS OF THIS CONDITION 8, THE COMPANY SHALL NOT BE LIABLE, WHETHER FOR BREACH OF STATUTORY OBLIGATION (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE), BREACH OF CONTRACT, MISREPRESENTATION OR OTHERWISE FOR:

8.3.1 LOSS OF PROFITS; LOSS OF BUSINESS, LOSS OF REVENUE; LOSS OF MARKETS; LOSS OR DAMAGE INCURRED AS A RESULT OF A THIRD PARTY CLAIM; DEPLETION OF GOODWILL AND/OR SIMILAR LOSSES; INJURY OR LOSS SAVINGS OR THEIR INCREASE; LOSS OF CONTRACT; LOSS OF USE; LOSS OR CORRUPTION OF DATA OR INFORMATION; EX GRATIA PAYMENTS; OR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, OR CONSEQUENTIAL LOSS, COSTS, DAMAGES, CHARGES, FINES, PENALTIES OR EXPENSES; OR PURE ECONOMIC LOSS.
All Intellectual Property Rights in all service mark(s), trade mark(s), certification mark(s) and other names and logos owned by the Company shall remain the property of the Company and cannot be sold or licensed by the Customer without the express prior written consent of the Company.

When certification is granted by the Company the Customer shall award a licence to the Customer to use the Company's certification mark(s) and logos for the certification validity period, subject to the applicable terms of use (as amended from time to time) which are issued with every certification and are available on request.

The Customer shall indemnify the Company against all losses to which the Company may become liable as a result of a claim that the use of any data, equipment or other materials supplied by the Customer for the performance of the Services involves the infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party.

Except for the rights to use set forth in condition 10, this Contract does not grant and shall not be construed as granting, any rights to either party to any name or mark of the other party. Neither party is granted any right to the other party's name in connection with any publication and may not give any press release or make any other public announcement regarding this Contract, the Services or any transaction between the parties without the express prior written consent of the other party.

10. Use of Reports

10.1 The Reports constitute confidential information that is to be protected and shall be used solely to:

10.1.1 assist the Customer in completing its internal requirements and the Company in performing Services for the Customer;

10.1.2 comply with the Customer's customer and other third party requirements for the delivery and use of the data recited in the Reports;

10.1.3 present or respond on a claim in a court of law (provided that, where this is the purpose for which the Report is instructed this has been agreed with the Company in advance of the Report being instructed); or

10.1.4 present or respond as required by law or any regulatory body.

10.2 The Customer hereby undertakes that it shall not:

10.2.1 except as set out in sub-condition 10.1, disclose a Report (or information contained within a Report) to any third party without the prior written consent of the Company;

10.2.2 replicate or present a Report except in full as delivered by the Company, unless otherwise agreed in advance by the Company;

10.2.3 use a Report, or any portion thereof, in any manner that might reflect unfavorably upon the Company or its group, or which might be, or might include statements, interpretations or comments that could be, misleading or false.

11. Premises

The Company's premises (the "Premises") are a designated security area and:

11.1.1 the Company reserves the right to refuse admission to the Premises;

11.1.2 unless otherwise agreed in advance by the Company, one visitor per Customer may be admitted on request to witness the Services carried out for that Customer; and

11.1.3 visitors to the Premises shall conform to the Company's regulations and procedures.

11.2 Where any aspect of the Service is undertaken on premises not occupied by the Company or under its direct control, the Customer must ensure that all necessary safety measures are in place to comply with all applicable health and safety regulations, and save as otherwise agreed in writing between the parties or where identification of asbestos is part of the scope of the Services to be provided by the Company to the Customer, the Customer must ensure all asbestos has been removed and/or is safely contained in every area to be visited by the Company's personnel during the visit to said premises.

11.3 In addition to any specific Customer obligations set out in the Quotation and the provisions of sub-condition 11.2, where Services are provided at premises other than the Company's premises, the Customer shall:

(i) provide the Company with necessary access to any Customer premises;

(ii) ensure that any premises provided by the Customer for the provision of any part of the Service is suitable for that purpose;

(iii) provide all usual auxiliary and operating materials (including gas, water, electricity, lighting etc.) relevant to any Customer supplied premises; and

(iv) provide the Company with any permits required for the performance of the Service.

12. Court and Other Proceedings

12.1 In the event that the Customer requires the Company to present the results or findings of Services carried out by the Company in witness statement or court proceedings the Customer agrees in advance that the Company shall pay to the Company such costs and fees for such presentations and the preparation thereof as the Company may charge to customers generally from time to time for such services and the Customer shall be liable for such costs in addition to the Consideration.
12.2 In the event that the Company is required by a party other than the Customer to present the results or findings of Services carried out by the Company for the Customer in any legal proceedings relating to the Customer, the Customer shall pay all costs and fees arising from any services which the Company is required to do as a result, including the preparation of any witness statement and the preparation for and appearance at any court hearing. The Customer shall pay all such costs, whether or not the Customer has paid all outstanding Consideration under the Contract and whether or not the Company has closed the Customer’s file in respect of the matter.

12.3 If any aspect or element of the Services (including any Sample) is, or is likely to be, the subject of or relevant to legal proceedings, this fact must be notified to the Company in writing before the Services are carried out. If that fact is not disclosed to the Company at that stage, the Company may not, in its absolute discretion, be prepared to provide expert testimony.

12.4 This condition 12 shall survive termination of the Contract.

13. Termination

For the purposes of this condition 13, “Sanctions Rules” shall mean: any applicable trade or economic sanctions, export control, embargo or similar laws, regulations, rules, measures, restrictions, or designated party lists, licences, orders, or requirements, in force from time to time, including without limit those of the Czech Republic, the European Union, the United Kingdom, the United States and the United Nations.

13.1 If the Customer becomes subject to any of the events listed in sub-condition 13.2, the Company may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the Customer.

13.2 For the purposes of sub-condition 13.1, the relevant events are:

13.2.1 if the Customer commits a breach of any terms of the Contract or any other contract with the Company which is incapable of remedy or, if capable of remedy, has not been remedied by the Customer in accordance with a written notice from the Company requiring remedy within the period specified in the said notice;

13.2.2 if the Customer fails to make payment of the Consideration within the specified time;

13.2.3 the Customer makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or becomes subject to an administration order or (being an individual or firm) becomes bankrupt or (being a company) is wound up or liquidated or amalgamated or reconstructed or ceases to exist or; suspends payment of any of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due within the meaning of Section 3 of Act No. 182/2006 Coll., on Insolvency and its resolutions;

13.2.4 an encumbrancer takes possession, or a receiver or administrator is appointed, over any of the property or assets of the Customer;

13.2.5 the Customer ceases, or threatens to cease, to carry on business;

13.2.6 the Company reasonably apprehends that the Customer’s financial condition is such that it is likely that the Customer will be unable to pay (otherwise than for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction) or ceases to exist or; suspends payment of any of its debts or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due within the meaning of Section 3 of Act No. 182/2006 Coll., on Insolvency and its resolutions;

13.2.7 if the Customer reasonably apprehends that providing the Services or dealing with the Customer would be in breach of Sanctions Rules, the Customer fails to satisfy due diligence requests made by the Company in connection with compliance with Sanctions Rules or other relevant laws or regulations or the Customer does anything which is in breach of, or would cause the Company to be in breach of, Sanctions Rules.

13.3 On termination of the Contract for any reason the Customer shall immediately pay to the Company all indebtedness to the Company with applicable interest.

13.4 Termination of the Contract, however arising, shall not affect any of the parties’ rights, remedies, obligations and liabilities that have accrued as at termination.

13.5 Conditions which expressly or by implication survive termination of the Contract shall continue in full force and effect.

14. Force Majeure

The parties shall not be liable for delay in performing, or failure to perform, any obligation under the Contract if such delay or failure to perform is caused directly or indirectly by any act of God, floods, drought, earthquake or other natural disaster, pandemic, epidemic, war, armed conflict, imposition of sanctions, embargo, or breaking off of diplomatic relations, riot, accident, terrorism, explosion, strike or labour dispute, any law, or any action taken by a government or public authority, including without limitation imposing an export or import restriction, quota or prohibition, or failing to grant a necessary licence or consent, delay or default by subcontractor or supplier of materials or services, the existence of any circumstance making performance commercially impracticable or any other cause beyond the party’s reasonable control, provided that this condition 14 shall not apply to any obligation to make any payments due to the Company under the Contract.

15. Waiver of Compliance

Waiver by either party hereto of a breach by the other party of any of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall not be deemed a waiver of future compliance therewith, and such provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

16. Entire Agreement

16.1 The Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes, extinguishes all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations, and understandings between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.

16.2 Each party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance, or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation or negligent misstatement based on any statement in the Contract.

17. Severability

If any provision or remedy herein provided for be invalid or unenforceable or unlawful under any applicable law in whole or in part, it shall be deemed to be amended in so far as it is possible to do so in order to make it enforceable whilst retaining its purpose or severed from the Contract if it is not possible to do so and the remaining provisions of these Terms and Conditions, including any remaining default remedies, shall be given effect in accordance with the intent hereof. In the Company’s sole discretion it may terminate the Contract by no less than seven (7) days’ written notice to the Customer in the event that it considers that such deletion will have a materially adverse effect on its rights under the Contract.

18. No Partnership or Agency

18.1 Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the parties, constitute any party the agent of another party, or authorise any party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other party.

18.2 Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

19. Third Parties

A person who is not a party to the Contract shall not have any rights under the Civil Code to enforce any term of the Contract.

20. Data Protection

For the purposes of this condition 20, “Data Protection Laws” shall mean up to and including 24 May 2018 the Directive 95/46/EC as transposed into domestic legislation of each Member State of the European Economic Area and in each case as amended, replaced or superseded from time to time, and on and from 25 May 2018 the EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council (“GDPR”) and/or other applicable data protection legislation in force.

20.1 Within this condition 20, “Data Controller”, “Data Processor”, “Data Subject”, “Personal Data” and “Personal Data Breach” shall have the same meaning as in the Data Protection Laws.

20.2 The Customer agrees not to provide or otherwise make available Personal Data to the Company, other than business contact information (for example, business, telephone number, job title, and email address), unless otherwise required for the provision of the Services, in which case such additional Personal Data shall be specifically identified in advance by Customer and agreed to in writing by the Company.

20.3 Where Personal Data is Processed by a party under or in connection with the Contract that party, as Data Processor, shall:

20.3.1 not Process, transfer, modify, amend or alter the Personal Data or disclose or permit the disclosure of the Personal Data to any third party other than as required to meet the other party’s (as Data Controller) lawful, documented and reasonable instructions (which shall unless otherwise agreed be to process personal Data as necessary to provide the Services pursuant to the terms of this Contract), unless required by a law to which the Data Processor is subject, provided that in such a case, the Data Processor shall inform the Data Controller of that legal requirement before Processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest. In direct contradiction to the Data Controller’s lawful, documented and reasonable instructions (which shall unless otherwise agreed be to process personal Data as necessary to provide the Services pursuant to the terms of this Contract), unless required by a law to which the Data Processor is subject, provided that in such a case, the Data Processor shall inform the Data Controller of that legal requirement before Processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest. In direct contradiction to the Data Processor’s lawful, documented and reasonable instructions (which shall unless otherwise agreed be to process personal Data as necessary to provide the Services pursuant to the terms of this Contract), unless required by a law to which the Data Processor is subject, provided that in such a case, the Data Processor shall inform the Data Controller of that legal requirement before Processing, unless that law prohibits such information on important grounds of public interest.

20.3.2 upon becoming aware of a Personal Data Breach:

(a) promptly notify the Data Controller without undue delay; and

(b) provide reasonable co-operation (at the cost of the Data Controller) to the Data Controller in connection with the Personal Data Breach;
20.3.3 upon receiving any request, complaint or communication relating to the Data Controller’s obligations under the Data Protection Laws:
(a) notify the Data Controller as soon as reasonably practicable;
(b) assist the Data Controller by implementing appropriate technical and organisational measures to enable the Data Controller to comply with any exercise of rights by a Data Subject under any Data Protection Laws in respect of Personal Data processed by the Data Processor under this Contract or comply with any assessment, enquiry, notice or investigation under any Data Protection Laws, provided in each case that the Data Controller shall reimburse the Data Processor in full for all costs reasonably incurred by the Data Processor performing its obligations under this sub-condition 20.3.3;

20.3.4 ensure that at all times it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures as required by Article 32 of the GDPR;

20.3.5 ensure that its employees who may have access to the Personal Data are subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations;

20.3.6 implement appropriate organisation and technical measures to assist the Data Controller in meeting its obligations in relation to Articles 33 to 36 of the GDPR taking into account the nature of processing and the information available to the Data Processor;

20.3.7 not authorise any sub-contractor to process the Personal Data ("sub-processor") other than with the prior written consent of the Data Controller, it being acknowledged that the Data Controller may give its consent to the appointment of sub-processors which may from time to time be engaged by the Data Processor who in each case are subject to terms between the Data Processor and the sub-processor which are no less protective than those set out in this condition 20, provided that the Data Processor notifies the Data Controller of the identity of such sub-processors and any change to them; and

20.3.8 cease Processing the Personal Data within ninety (90) days upon the termination or expiry of this Contract or, if sooner, the Service to which it relates and as soon as possible thereafter (at the Data Controller’s option), either return, or securely wipe from its systems, the Personal Data and any copies of it or of the information it contains, other than to the extent that the Data Processor is required to retain the Personal Data due to a legal or regulatory requirement, or by a requirement of an accreditation body.

20.4 The Data Processor shall make available to the Data Controller such further information and (as applicable) allow for and contribute to any audit or review exercise, conducted by the Data Controller or an auditor mandated by the Data Controller to provide assurance that the Data Processor is in compliance with the obligations set out in this condition 20, provided always that this requirement shall not oblige the Data Processor to provide or permit access to information concerning:
(i) the Data Processor’s internal pricing information; (ii) information relating to other clients of the Data Processor; (iii) any Data Processor non-public external reports; or (iv) any internal reports prepared by the Data Processor’s internal audit or compliance functions. The Data Processor must immediately inform the Data Controller if, in its opinion, an instruction provided by the Data Controller pursuant to this Contract infringes the GDPR or other EU or Member State data protection provisions.

21. Sub-contracting

21.1 Unless otherwise restricted by the terms of the Contract and/or obligations under any accreditation or governing approval, the Company shall be entitled, in its absolute discretion, to sub-contract the whole of or any part of the Service.

21.2 The Company may subcontract any sub-contract, delegate, license or hold on trust, all or any part of its rights or obligations under the Contract.

21.3 The Contract is personal to the Customer which may not assign, delegate, license, hold on trust or sub-contract all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the Company’s prior written consent.

22. Confidentiality

For the purposes of this condition 22, “Confidential Information” shall mean all information which a party may have or acquire before or after the date of the Contract which relates to a party’s business, products, developments, trade secrets, know-how or other matters connected with the Services and information concerning a party’s relationships with actual or potential clients, customers or suppliers and all other information designated as confidential or which ought reasonably to be considered confidential.

22.1 Each party (the “Recipient”) shall keep all Confidential Information of the other party (the “Disclosing Party”) in the strictest confidence. Save for the purposes of fulfilling its obligations under the Contract, the Recipient shall not, without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party, disclose, divulge or grant access to the Confidential Information which it has received and shall not permit any of its employees, agents or sub-contractors to disclose, divulge or grant access to such Confidential Information.

22.2 Notwithstanding condition 22.1, a Recipient may disclose Confidential Information which it has received if:
22.2.1 it is required to do so by any governmental, local government or public external authority or by any anti-corruption or anti-bribery body or by law (but then only to the extent it is strictly required to do so);

22.2.2 it is strictly necessary for the purpose only of obtaining professional advice in relation to the Contract;

22.2.3 it was already known to the Recipient prior to the time of disclosure; or

22.2.4 it is information which subsequently becomes public knowledge other than by breach of the Contract by the Recipient.

22.3 In the event of an information request being made to a Recipient pursuant to Act No. 106/1999 Coll., on Free Access to Information Act No. 123/1998 Coll., on the Right to Information on the Environment, or other applicable freedom of information legislation, as the case may be, in respect of any Confidential Information then the Recipient shall notify the Disclosing Party and shall not disclose any information until an analysis has been made as to whether the information requested is capable of benefiting from an exemption from disclosure.

22.4 The obligations of the parties under this condition 22 shall continue to apply without limit of time.

23. Export Control Licence

For the purposes of this condition 23, “Export Control Licence” shall mean any public or governmental licence, approval or similar (whether temporary or permanent), issued directly or indirectly, by any Czech, United Kingdom or other foreign authority which, from time to time, is necessary to obtain in order to be entitled to market, import, export, re-export products and/or provision of services and/or transfer of technology and/or Intellectual Property Rights.

23.1 The Company’s performance of its obligations under this Contract may, wholly or partly, be subject to Export Control Licences. If any such Export Control Licence requires signed end user certificates or any other Czech, United Kingdom or other foreign governmental or court approvals or consents, the parties agree to assist each other, in completing the relevant end user certificates or other such approvals or consents and the Customer undertakes to conform to and apply the terms of such, end user certificates, Export Control Licences or restrictions.

23.2 The Customer represents and warrants that it shall inform the Company in writing, prior to the Company carrying out any Service, of any applicable import or export restrictions that may apply to the Services to be provided, including any instances where any products, information or technology may be exported/imported to or from a country that is banned from such transaction.

23.3 The Company, in providing its services to obtain the necessary Export Control Licences, but the parties acknowledge that the issuance of Export Control Licences is at the sole discretion of the relevant authorities. If any necessary Export Control Licence are delayed, denied or revoked, the Company shall notify the Customer thereof in writing, providing the Customer with the Company’s best efforts to assist each other, in being entitled to a corresponding extension of the time for provision of the Services, and, in case any necessary Export Control Licence are denied or revoked, terminate the Contract, wholly or partly, without liability in relation to the Customer.

23.4 Should the Services or any product of the Company be subject to any Export Control Licences or any other Czech, United Kingdom or other foreign governmental or court restrictions, the Customer undertakes to conform to and apply the from time to time valid terms of such Export Control Licences or restrictions.

24. Anti-Corruption

24.1 The Customer undertakes to comply with all applicable laws, statutes, regulations and codes relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to Act No. 40/2009 Coll., Criminal Code, the UK Bribery Act 2010 and the US Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (“Anti-Corruption Laws”) and that it shall not do, nor omit to do, any act which will lead to the Company being in breach of any of the Anti-Corruption Laws. The Company shall:

24.1.1 comply with the Company’s Anti-corruption policies as may be notified by the Company to the Customer and updated from time to time (“Relevant Policies”);

24.1.2 promptly report to the Company any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by the Customer in connection with the performance of the Contract;

24.1.3 promptly notify the Company (in writing) if a foreign public official becomes an officer employee of the Customer or acquires a direct or indirect interest in the Customer (and the Customer warrants that it has no foreign public officials as direct or indirect owners, officers or employees at the date of this Contract;

25. Notices

All notices to be served by one party on the other must be in writing and shall be deemed duly delivered or served at the time of service if delivered personally and at the moment when they were actually delivered within the addressee’s sphere (i.e. when the addressee has an objective possibility to get acquainted with the content of the relevant notice). If posted by first class or airmail pre-paid post in each case to the registered address, if applicable, or if not applicable the last known address of the other party.

26. No Waiver

No failure or delay by the Company to exercise any right, power or remedy will operate as a waiver of it nor will any partial exercise preclude any further exercise of the same or of some other right, power or remedy.

27. Governing Law

27.1 The Contract and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the Czech Republic.

27.2 Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of the Czech Republic shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims).
